

★ MAY 03 2011 ★

DISTRICT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF SUFFOLK
FIRST DISTRICT COURT--RONKONKOMA

LONG ISLAND OFFICE

DISCOVER,

REPLY AFFIRMATION

Plaintiff,

Index No. CEC 13065/2009

-against-

CV 11 2150

PAUL REDWOOD,

COGAN, J.

Defendant.

Edward J. Grossman, being duly affirmed, deposes and says under penalty of perjury as follows:

1. I am the attorney of record for the Plaintiff herein. As such I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances of the case.
2. This is a collection matter in which the balance due is disputed.
3. Defendant has moved to strike this matter from the trial calendar. Defendant has done so because there has been no discovery.

That is all Defendant is seeking. Plaintiff's counsel erroneously appears to think that Defendant is seeking to strike her pleadings. That is not the case. Defendant is not imputing anything that would justify striking Plaintiff's pleadings. Defendant is only asking that the case come off the trial calendar because it is not trial ready because it is not trial ready due to the lack of discovery.

Dated: May 3, 2011
Smithtown, New York

Edward J. Grossman Esq.
Attorney for Defendant
135 West Main Street
Smithtown, New York 11787
631-265-5864

Affirmation of Mailing

On May 3, 2011, I, Edward J. Grossman served the within Reply Affirmation on Plaintiff's attorney, Crystal Scott, @ Cohen and Slamowitz, LLP at their office located at 199 Crossway Park Drive, Post Office Box 9004, Woodbury, NY 11997-9004, by First Class Mail.

Affirmed: May 3, 2011

Edward J. Grossman